On the Trail of Buddha—A Journey to the East is a unique sojourn in search of the spiritual, philosophical, and cultural linkages that bind India to the East Asian civilisations. From the wandering monks of Asia to the temples and monasteries they visited; from the statues and frescoes in grottoes to those in the museums; from the diverse ethnicities of the people to their common gods and goddesses—the book explores the ‘ancient India’, beautifully preserved in the traditions, art, and architecture of China, as also in Mongolia, Korea, and Japan, to where it spread from China.

‘A book wrapped in the gold of centuries from a thousand flowers of the mind. It is a journey of culture on a bullet train.’—Padma Bhushan, Lokesh Chandra as an Indian Revenue Service officer, is also a passionate traveller and a consummate photographer and writer. His articles have, over the years, appeared in various magazines and newspapers. World Heritage Sites of Uttarakhand, his first pictorial book was published in 2010.

Deepankar Aron, an alumnus of IIT Delhi, recognised with the Presidential Award for his contribution

Exploring the ancient Indian connection to the Oriental.

Discovering the unity in diversity of cultures connected by the two thousand miles of the Silk Road and separated by two thousand years of history.

A unique spiritual sojourn into China, Korea, Taiwan, Japan, and Mongolia.
